Notes:

(a) According to the relevant laws and regulations applicable to the PRC, the subsidiaries established in the PRC are required to appropriate 10% of their profit after tax, as determined under the PRC accounting rules and regulations, to the statutory reserve before distribution of dividends to the shareholders. The appropriation to the statutory reserve is required to be made before the declaration of dividends. Subject to certain restrictions set out in the relevant PRC laws and regulations, the statutory reserve may be used to offset accumulated losses or increase the registered capital of the subsidiaries.

(b) Pursuant to the Announcement of the Ministry of Finance (財政部) and the State Administration of Work Safety (安全監管總局) on the Adjustment of Standards for the Withdrawal and Use of Enterprise Work Safety Fees (關於調整企業安全生產費提取使用標準的通知) on 21 November 2022, the Group's subsidiaries engaged in the production of coal and other mineral resources are required to withdraw work safety fees based on the actual coal production of the previous year. The withdrawn work safety fees are recorded in the specific reserve account.

(c) Pursuant to the agreement entered into between 深圳京能融資租賃有限公司 (Shenzhen Jingneng Financial Lease Co., Ltd., "Shenzhen Jingneng Lease") and certain subsidiaries of the Company (the "Subsidiaries") on 2 December 2022, Shenzhen Jingneng Lease contributed capital of RMB1,309,078,000 to the Subsidiaries, and the Subsidiaries issued new equity interests to Shenzhen Jingneng Lease. Upon the capital contribution from Shenzhen Jingneng Lease, the Company's equity interests in the Subsidiaries decreased from 100% to 51%, and Shenzhen Jingneng Lease acquired 49% equity interests in the Subsidiaries. The Group recognised a decrease in non-controlling interests of RMB1,983,000.

The Company issued the Perpetual Notes on 16 December 2021, at an aggregate principal amount of RMB1,000,000,000 (the "Perpetual Notes"). The proceeds, after the deduction of the issuance fee of the Perpetual Notes, amounted to RMB995,500,000.

The Company has the right to defer the payment of interest on 20 December 2024, 3.30% per annum, and on each anniversary date thereafter. 20 December (each a "Distribution Payment Date"). The Company has the discretion to defer the payment of interest (or any portion thereof) on the Perpetual Notes for an indefinite period of time and there is no limit to the number of times of deferral. However, the Company will not be entitled to defer the payment of interest on the Perpetual Notes during the following periods: (i) if the Company fails to pay interest on the Perpetual Notes on the relevant Distribution Payment Date; (ii) if the Company fails to redeem the Perpetual Notes on the redemption date; or (iii) if the Company fails to pay any mandatory distribution payment on the relevant Distribution Payment Date.

The Perpetual Notes are unsecured and subordinated obligations of the Company. On 20 December 2024 or any Distribution Payment Date thereafter, the Company may, at its option, redeem all or part of the Perpetual Notes at their principal amount together with any interest accrued but unpaid to the redemption date.

After 20 December 2024, the Company may choose to extend the maturity date of the Perpetual Notes for an indefinite period of time on each Distribution Payment Date thereafter. The difference between the initial principal amount of the Perpetual Notes and the fair value on the issuance date was recognised as deferred income, and will be amortised over the period from the issuance date to 20 December 2024 (the first Distribution Payment Date) using the effective interest rate of 3.30% per annum. The Company has the discretion to defer the payment of interest (or any portion thereof) on the Perpetual Notes for an indefinite period of time and there is no limit to the number of times of deferral. However, the Company will not be entitled to defer the payment of interest on the Perpetual Notes during the following periods: (i) if the Company fails to pay interest on the Perpetual Notes on the relevant Distribution Payment Date; (ii) if the Company fails to redeem the Perpetual Notes on the redemption date; or (iii) if the Company fails to pay any mandatory distribution payment on the relevant Distribution Payment Date.

Pursuant to the terms of the Perpetual Notes, the Company has the obligation to pay holders of the Perpetual Notes distributions at a rate of 3.30% per annum on the principal amount of the Perpetual Notes. Accordingly, the Perpetual Notes are classified as financial liabilities and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.
